To the Emu Plains JRLFC Community,

The 2013 season is upon us! Our trial games kick off in March with Round 1 of the competition kicking off on the weekend of the 20th / 21st April. Who's pumped?

As trials are organised between two clubs (most of the time) it is unrealistic to expect that the two clubs will have an equal number of teams, in the same age groups and divisions. For this reason, please don't expect that all players will receive full games. For example, some age groups may have to field two teams in the one game of footy or a 5th division team may play against a 2nd division team. Keep in mind that trials are just that, trials. It's an opportunity for players to get some game time, get a feel for the bigger field (for U9s and U12s) and dust out the cobwebs from the off-season.

Trial games held at Leonay Oval are always busy which is great for our club as we are building Stage 1 (toilets) of our new amenities block in 2013 and need to raise funds so we can begin Stage 2 (meeting room) as soon as possible.

As has always been the case, we will call on teams to assist in the canteen, on the BBQ, and in setting up and packing up the fields. Our club is at its best when people are supportive and positive so please ensure you turn up on time when your team is on duty.

If you would like to lend a hand outside of your team's duty time please do not hesitate to ask a committee member how you might be able to help on the day. Many hands make light work ☺

We're looking forward to a big 2013 with plenty of footy and lots of events planned so we can get our clubhouse completed sooner, rather than later. Bring it on! ☺

Kind Regards,

The 2013 Committee
